

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 2:04-00188

REGINALD C. JACKSON

SUPERVISED RELEASE REVOCATION AND JUDGMENT ORDER
MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

On March 18, 2013, the United States of America appeared by Joshua C. Hanks, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant, Reginald C. Jackson, appeared in person and by his counsel, Lex A. Coleman, Assistant Federal Public Defender, for a hearing on the petition on supervised release submitted by United States Probation Officer Douglas W. Smith, the defendant having commenced a three-year term of supervised release in this action on September 28, 2012, as more fully set forth in the Judgment Including Sentence Under the Sentencing Reform Act entered by the court on March 2, 2006.

The court heard the admissions of the defendant and the representations and argument of counsel.

For reasons noted on the record of this proceeding, which are ORDERED incorporated herein by reference, the court found that the defendant has violated the conditions of supervised release in the following respects: (1) that the defendant failed to complete the six-month residency period at Transition's that he began on September 28, 2012, in that he left the facility without permission on December 25, 2012, and did not return, and (2) that the defendant on February 8, 2013, provided a urine specimen testing positive for cocaine, amphetamines, methamphetamines, benzodiazepines, and marijuana.

And the court finding, as more fully set forth on the record of the hearing, that the violations warrant revocation of supervised release and, further, that it would unduly depreciate the seriousness of the violations if supervised release were not revoked, it is ORDERED that the supervised release previously imposed upon the defendant in this action be, and it hereby is, revoked.

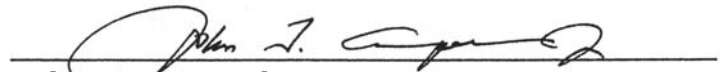

And the court having complied with the requirements of Rule 32(a)(1)(B) and (C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and finding, on the basis of the original offense, the intervening conduct of the defendant and after considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e), that the defendant is in need of correctional treatment which can most effectively be provided if he is confined, it is accordingly ORDERED that the defendant be, and he hereby is, committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons for imprisonment for a period of SIX (6) MONTHS, without any further term of supervised release.

The defendant was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this written opinion and order to the defendant, all counsel of record, the United States Probation Department, and the United States Marshal.

DATED: March 19, 2013

John T. Copenhaver, Jr.
United States District Judge
